

Before the
FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
Washington, DC 20554

In the Matter of Source One Communications, Inc.
Application for authority pursuant File No.
to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934
As amended, for global authority to operate as an international resale carrier

Application

Source One Communications, Inc., hereby requests authority, pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. Section 214 (1982), and Section 63.18 of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. Section 63.18, to provide global international resale services between the United States and international points.

Source One Communications, Inc. is a U.S. company organized to provide local and international telecommunications services. Source One Communications, Inc. has no foreign affiliations. Source One Communications, Inc. serves residential customers throughout the United States.

By granting this application, the Commission will serve the public interest, convenience and necessity by promoting competition in the international services market. Competition will benefit U.S. consumers by increasing service options and lowering prices. Thus, the public interest will be served by the grant of Section 214 authority to Source One Communications, Inc.
