Dear Sirs:

Re: Application of Navigata Communications Ltd. for Extension of Special Temporary Authority of Section 214 International License

I advise that I am legal counsel employed by Saskatchewan Telecommunications ("SaskTel") of Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada. I am also legal counsel for Navigata Communications Ltd. ("Navigata") headquartered in North Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada, the applicant for a Section 214 International License (Submission ID#2004003149). Navigata is an affiliate of SaskTel.

My client was granted a Section 214 Special Temporary Authority on March 3, 2005, by your division with an expiry date of August 30th, 2005. My client's STA has been extended once previously on August 30th, 2005 due to expire February 25th, 2006.

My client has completed its review of its US operations and presence. As I have noted previously, my client disposed of its virtual point of presence in New York. My client has determined that a strategic and important factor in their business going forward will be a continued presence on the west coast where it is headquartered. That presence I have been informed, will be to continue to provide private line service for its Canadian customers with a US branch or office as well terminating US bound traffic from Canada and other international
