Dear. Ms. Morra,

Clon Communications LLC was incorporated in Delaware. As such, its formal identity is Clon Communications LLC (a Delaware Corporation) at the listed Delaware address for corporate identification purposes.

As to contact information, Clon Communications LLC's headquarters and personnel are at the listed California address. That is why the California information was listed under the FCC 214 section for contact information.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact me as listed below.

Best Regards,

Alonzo

Alonzo,
Thank you for the revised attachment. There is one other discrepancy in the application. On the application filed through IBFS, the address for Clon Communications LLC is in Los Angeles, CA, but on the attachment it looks like the address for the company is Wilmington, DE. If you could please clarify this, we can begin to process this application.

Thank you,

Mikelle Morra
