Mikelle:

Per your e-mail below, FCC sent letters to ten applicants notifying them that they must advise FCC on the status of their applications with the Executive Branch agencies. I believe the deadline expired on March 18 – can we expect some (if not all) of these applications to be dismissed via public notice in the near future?

Also, according to our records, the Executive Branch agencies have not received responses from several other applicants – would FCC be willing to send similar letters to the below listed applicants? It would be helpful for us to be able to clear our docket of these relatively older, non-responsive applications:

We have finally heard from the applicant on this one.

Now that we have established that he is a U.S. citizen, and there is no foreign ownership, are you okay if we un-refer this application and grant? We would likely note this change in status for the application in our weekly letter next week, and grant the week after that if everything is okay.

Dear Mr. Krech

Here attached is Jose Barrios current immigration status. Attached is a copy of his U S Passport which would clearly make him a U S Citizen. It appears that when Mr. Barrios filed for his 214 he was a citizen from Peru. Please let me know what additional documents would be needed to satisfy his current application. For future reference we communicated with Mr. Barrios and informed him should there be any changes to his company he should notify Regnum Group Inc, promptly to be able to communicate the information to the various Government agencies.
