

Attachment 1
To
Section 214 Application of Potosi, Inc.

Question 9: This application qualifies for streamlined processing because (i) although it is affiliated with a foreign carrier, such carrier has a miniscule portion of the local market and qualifies for a presumption of non-dominance under section 63.10(a)(3), (ii) has no affiliation with a dominant U.S. carrier, and (iii) the Commission has not notified the applicant that it is not eligible for streamlined processing.

As described in detail in Attachment 2 below, the shareholders of the applicant own a controlling interest in Holding Protel S.A. de C. V., a Mexican company (“Protel”).

A study by Pyramid Research (see www.pyr.com) entitled “Communications Markets in Mexico, 2004” found the following market shares in various Mexican Telecom markets:

Local Services:

Telmex	97%
Axel	2%
Maxcom	1%

Long distance:

Telmex	67%
Avantel	14%
Alestra	9%
Others	10%

Data:

Telmex	67%
Avantel	15%
Alestra	9%
Others	9%

Protel is a small part of the “others” category in Long distance and Data.

Question 10: N/A

Question 11: Information and certifications pursuant to section 63.18(i) through (m):

- (i) Applicant is affiliated with Protel, a Mexican carrier in that the shareholders of Applicant hold a controlling interest in Protel.
- (j) Applicant seeks to provide international telecommunications services to Mexico, a country in which Applicant is affiliated with a non-dominant carrier.
- (k) The Applicant’s affiliated foreign carrier lacks market power. See response to Question 9, above.

- (l) Although Applicant proposes to resell international switched services of unaffiliated U.S. carriers to a country in which it is affiliated with a carrier, such carrier has such a minimal portion of the Mexican market (see Question 9, above) that it is presumptively classified as non-dominant.
- (m) See question 9, above.

Question 12: Applicant seeks to provide services to Mexico, a destination in which it is affiliated with a non-dominant carrier.
