I am requesting information about the status of the application, currently pending before the International Bureau, filed by Sipcom Corporation ITC-214-20070801-00311 on August 1, 2007 for authority to provide international services. Our records indicate that the Commission is currently awaiting completion of the review of the application by the Executive Branch agencies. Normally, that review entails a request by those agencies for additional information needed for their review and a response by the applicant.

Please advise me by October 26, 2010 of your understanding of the status of the application in the Executive Branch review process, so that we can assess whether we can take action on the application. Also, please confirm that you continue to seek Commission action on the application.

Thank You.
