Thanks. We will proceed.

From: John GiustiSent: Tuesday, March 17, 2009 2:28 PMTo: James Ball; Howard Griboff; George LiCc: Arthur LechtmanSubject: dismissal letters/routine matters

Based on feedback from the Chairman's office, letters from IB's Policy Division that dismiss international applications because of (1) "redlight" violations or (2) a failure to respond to Commission requests for additional information by a given deadline (47 C.F.R. 63.51(b)) should be viewed as routine matters not requiring prior approval of the Chairman's office for release.

Therefore, you may proceed with the Credicall dismissal letter and subsequent actions of such a routine nature.

Thanks,

John Giusti
