

63.18(e)(1)(ii) and 63.18(e)(2)(ii) – Qualitynet General Trading & Contracting Company WLL (“Qualitynet”) does not request authorization to provide international telecommunications services to Bahrain.

63.18(i) – Qualitynet hereby certifies that it is affiliated with Bahrain Telecommunications Company (“BTC”), a company formed under the laws of Bahrain and a licensed telecommunications service provider in Bahrain with market power. BTC owns 44% of Qualitynet. 36.67% of BTC is owned by the government of Bahrain through a holding company, Bahrain Mumtalakat Holding Co., formed under the laws of Bahrain.

63.18(j) – Qualitynet hereby certifies that it does not seek to provide international telecommunications services to any country in which (a) Qualitynet is a foreign carrier, (b) Qualitynet controls a foreign carrier, (c) an entity that owns more than 25% of Qualitynet, or that controls Qualitynet, controls a foreign carrier, or (d) two or more foreign carriers (or parties that control foreign carriers) own, in the aggregate, more than 25% of Qualitynet and are parties to, or beneficiaries of, contracts affecting the provision or marketing of international basic telecommunications services in the United States. For the avoidance of doubt, Qualitynet does not seek to provide international telecommunications services to Bahrain at this time, and in the event Qualitynet desires to provide such services to Bahrain, it will seek Commission approval.

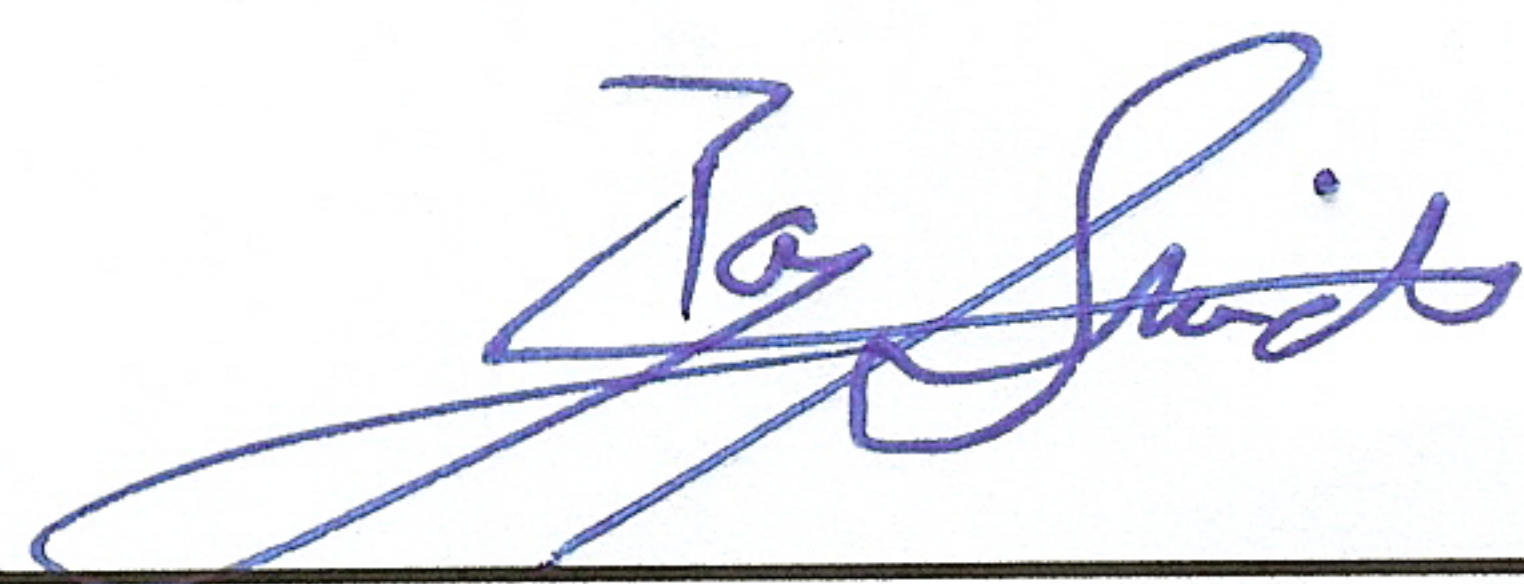

63.18(k) – Not applicable, although Bahrain is a member of the WTO.

63.18(l) – Qualitynet does not desire the authority to resell the international switched services of an unaffiliated U.S. carrier on the route to Bahrain.

63.18(m) – Qualitynet desires to be classified as non-dominant on all routes except Bahrain. Qualitynet does not seek authority to provide international telecommunications services to Bahrain at this time.

63.18(n) – Qualitynet has not agreed to accept special concessions directly or indirectly from any foreign carrier with respect to any U.S. international route where the foreign carrier possesses market power on the foreign end of the route and will not enter into such agreements in the future.

The undersigned officer of Qualitynet General Trading & Contracting Company WLL, under penalty of perjury, hereby certifies that the representations and information provided above are true and correct to the best of his knowledge, information and belief.
