APPLICATION

Flex Networks, LLC (“Applicant” or “Flex Networks”), hereby requests authority, pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 214 (1982), and Section 63.18 of the Federal Communications Commission's (“Commission”) Rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.18, to provide global international resale and facilities-based authority between the United States and international points, except those international points not authorized by the Commission (the “Application”). Flex Networks is a U.S. company organized to provide international telecommunications services. Flex Networks has no foreign affiliations. Flex Networks serves business customers throughout the United States and the world. By granting this application, the Commission will serve the public interest, convenience and necessity by promoting competition in the international services market. Competition will benefit U.S. consumers by increasing service options and lowering prices. Thus, the public interest will be served by the grant of Section 214 authority to Flex Networks.
