² C&W is in the process of divesting its indirect 49% ownership interest in Telecommunications Services of Trinidad and Tobago Limited.

³ None of the carriers listed in this table is listed in the Commission's List of Foreign Telecommunications Carriers that are Presumed to Possess Market Power in Foreign Telecommunications Markets. In addition, these foreign carriers offer services in competition with dominant foreign carriers and others. These foreign carriers each hold significantly less than a 50% market share in the international transport market between the U.S. and their home markets in the local access markets in the countries where they operate. Moreover, these foreign carriers do not have the ability to discriminate against unaffiliated U.S. international carriers through the control of bottleneck services or facilities to exercise market power in the countries where they operate.

b. Section 63.18(j) – Certification Regarding Destination Markets

Applicant certifies that it seeks to provide international telecommunications services to all the destination points listed in response to Question 11 – Section 63.18(i) above.

c. Section 63.18(k) – Demonstration Regarding WTO Membership

With the exception of the Bahamas⁴, all of the foreign destination markets identified in response to Question 11 – Section 63.18(i) above are members of the World Trade Organization (“WTO”).⁵

d. Section 63.18(l)

This subsection of the regulation has been deleted.

⁴ The Bahamas has applied for WTO membership and currently holds observer status at the WTO.

⁵ The Commission treats British overseas territories as WTO Members. See, e.g., Letter from Robert E. Dalton, Assistant Legal Adviser for treaty Affairs, United States Dept. of State, to Rebecca Arbogast, Chief, Telecommunications Division, International Bureau, Federal Communications Commission (Feb. 16, 2000). Thus, Anguilla, the British Virgin Islands, the Cayman Islands, Monserrat, and Turks and Caicos should be treated as WTO members for purposes of this application.

e. Section 63.18(m) – Requests for Non-Dominant Status

Pursuant to Section 63.10(a)(3), Applicant qualifies for a presumption of non-dominant status on all international routes except those listed below because each of the its foreign carrier affiliates (except those listed below) lacks 50% market share in the fixed local access and international transport markets on the foreign end of the route.
