Hi Joann:

I apologize for not including this the first go-around –there are no other 10% or greater shareholders.

Please let me know if you need any additional info.

Thanks Becky,

Can you include below and resend to me who owns the additional 54% of the company. If this 54% is owned by several owners with less than 10% interest, you need only state that there are no other 10% or greater shareholders.

Thanks!!
