We wanted to let you know that OMD and USAC notified us that Supra Telecommunications and Information Systems, Inc. the transferor in the joint Supra/Cleartel application, owes a delinquent debt to USAC of $740,000. Because of this, OMD issued the attached "Notice of Withholding of Action" to Supra late last week.

Although Supra is red lighted at USAC, the debt is a "manual delinquency" at the FCC, and therefore did not show up on our red light display system when we did our usual check prior to issuing the initial PN. OMD told us that, although the debt is now officially listed in the FCC's records, the display system will continue to show a green status for Supra. Nevertheless, based on the Notice of Withholding Action, we're required to pull the application from streamlined processing, which we will do today. We're not sure how this impacts IB's process, but please let us know if you have questions or if we can help in any way. Thanks.

WC Docket No. 06-164

By the Chief, Wireline Competition Bureau:

On July 31, 2006, Cleartel Communications, Inc. (“CCF”), Supra Telecommunications and Information Systems Acquisition Corp. (“New Supra”), and Cleartel Telecommunications, Inc. The Commission released a public notice accepting the application for streamlined processing on August 30, 2006.² On September 11, 2006, the Wireline Competition Bureau removed the application from streamlined review for further consideration to determine whether the proposed transfer of control would serve the public interest.³

In addition, no party to the transaction is dominant with respect to any service.

Consistent with Commission precedent, the Wireline Competition Bureau imposes the following conditions on the Applicants to ensure that the transferred assets are operated properly going forward, consistent with applicable law, including universal service statutory and regulatory requirements.⁴ Specifically, as of the date of the closing of this transaction and as a condition of the grant of the Application, the Applicants will each (i) have paid and satisfied all their required contributions (including all delinquent USF contributions) and other financial obligations to the Commission, and as applicable, the Universal Service Fund, North American Numbering Plan, and Telecommunications Relay Service, and (ii) have made adequate provision to pay, and will pay when due, all required contributions, including accrued but not yet invoiced amounts. We leave it to the Applicants to resolve the details; however, we require Applicants either to pay at closing or to escrow funds for payment to the Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC) amounts sufficient to satisfy the Universal Service Fund contributions that are payable on October 13, 2006 and will be payable on November 15, 2006.⁵ Immediately following the tender of payments to USAC, the Applicants shall submit to the Bureau proof of payment. Applicants are responsible for assuring timely payment of the amounts invoiced.
