Thanks Melissa. In this situation we'll take it off streamlining. Once the parties have entered into their final agreement, let us know whether the terms remain the same as in the application. If they are the same we can then grant. If there are any changes, the application will need to be amended accordingly.

Thanks again. Sumita

Regarding the Agreement, if the date of the Agreement slips to Monday the 8th, is that a problem? I believe the automatic grant of 14 days after PN is this Friday the 5th -- please advise.... Thanks

Sumita -- re the First/NAC/Acceris transfer application.

1. The Agreement was not executed on Dec. 28th after all -- they plan to do it this Friday the 5th.
2. Yes, Choicetel is an LLC now. They never notified the FCC.
