Answer to Question 12

Neither Bridgewater-Canistota nor Armour nor GW Properties nor GW Cooperative nor any of their subsidiaries or affiliates has any interlocking directorates with a foreign carrier.

Answer to Question 13

The subject transaction consisted of the merger of Bridgewater-Canistota and its immediate parent companies Armour and GW Properties into their ultimate parent company GW Cooperative. Effective on January 1, 2010, Bridgewater-Canistota was merged into its parent company Armour, and Armour was merged into its parent company GW Properties, and GW Properties was merged into GW Cooperative. The separate existence of Bridgewater-Canistota, Armour and GW Properties ceased, and the surviving GW Cooperative took over their assets and operations including the subject International Section 214 authorization for global resale.
