<sup>2</sup> Pursuant to Section 63.21(i) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.21(i), the Commission is hereby notified that MTS Allstream Inc. changed its name to MTS Inc. on January 1, 2012.

Answer to Question 12:

Allstream Holdings has no interlocking directorates with other foreign carriers (except for those who also may be officers or directors of Manitoba Telecom or its Canadian operating subsidiaries).

Answer to Question 13:

Manitoba Telecom undertook an internal corporate reorganization on January 1, 2012. As part of the reorganization, MTS assigned the subject international Section 214 authorization to Allstream Holdings. As noted above, MTS and Allstream Holdings are wholly-owned subsidiaries of Manitoba Telecom. Accordingly, the assignment did not result in a change in ultimate control of the authorization, which continues to reside with Manitoba Telecom. The assignment is therefore properly classified as a pro forma transaction.
