Re: File No. ITC-ASG-20141030-00284 - St. John Cooperative Telephone &
Telegraph Company

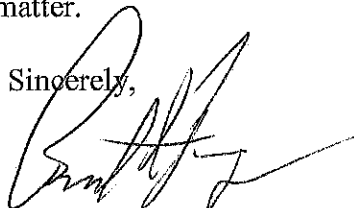

To Whom it May Concern:

Pursuant to inquiries from Federal Communication Commission Staff, this letter will serve to file supplemental information in the above referenced matter. First, the effective date for the pro forma transfer of control was August 11, 2014. That is the date that Coin Telecom, Inc. ("Coin Telecom") was merged into St. John Cooperative Telephone & Telegraph Company ("St. John").

Second, there is no parent company for St. John. Coin Telecom was a wholly owned subsidiary of St. John. St. John has no parent company. There is no person that has a five percent or greater interest in St. John.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Finnigan
