Re: Notification Regarding Change in Corporate Form Resulting in Pro Forma Assignment of the International Section 214 Authorization of ACN Communication Services, Inc.

Dear Ms. Dortch:

ACN Communication Services, LLC (“Assignee”), by undersigned counsel and pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 63.24(f), notifies the Commission that, effective July 24, 2015, it converted to a Michigan limited liability company from a Michigan corporation resulting in the assignment of the International Section 214 Authorization of ACN Communication Services, Inc. (“Assignor”) (Assignee and Assignor together, the “Company”) to Assignee.¹

Information Required by Section 63.24(f)(2)

As required by Section 63.24(f)(2), the Company provides the following information required by 63.18(a) through (d) and (h):

¹ The Company notes that the conversion was completed by filing Articles of Conversion and did not entail a merger or other transaction that extinguished the existence of Assignor. As such, Assignee is the same entity as Assignor, except that it is a limited liability company rather than a corporation.

Answer to Question 13 - Description of Assignment

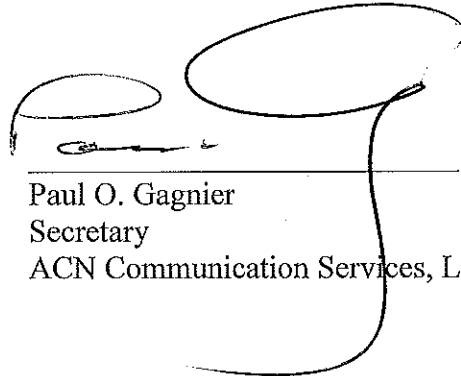

Effective July 24, 2015, Assignor converted from a Michigan corporation to a Michigan limited liability company resulting in the assignment of Assignor's International Section 214 Authorization to Assignee. The conversion was completed by filing an Articles of Conversion and did not entail a merger or other transaction that extinguished the existence of Assignor.² As such, Assignee is the same entity as Assignor, except that it is a limited liability company rather than a corporation.

² See Mich. Comp. Laws Â§ 450.4709(3)(f) & (h) (stating that "The surviving business organization is considered to be the same entity that existed before the conversion and is considered to be organized on the date that the domestic corporation was originally incorporated. . . . [T]he domestic corporation is not required to wind up its affairs or pay its liabilities and distribute its assets on account of the conversion, and the conversion does not constitute a dissolution of the domestic corporation." (emphasis added)).

VERIFICATION

I, Paul O. Gagnier, state that I am Secretary of ACN Communication Services, LLC (the "Company"); that I am authorized to make this Verification on behalf of the Company; that the foregoing filing was prepared under my direction and supervision; and that the contents are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this 20 day of August, 2015.
