Answer to Question 13

Old Falcon underwent an internal corporate reorganization on January 12, 2018 in which Old Falcon changed its corporate form from a Colorado corporation to a Colorado limited liability company. Old Falcon's parent company FBB Holdings, LLC, remains in control of New Falcon, thus the reorganization did not result in a substantial change in beneficial ownership. Accordingly, the assignment of Old Falcon's international Section 214 authorization to New Falcon was pro forma in nature.
