Re: WaveCrest Communications LLC: Request for Refund of Filing Fees

Dear Mr. Fishel:

WaveCrest Communications, LLC, ("WaveCrest"), a holder of an international 214 authorization, by its counsel, seeks a refund of $1790 associated with two applications. On January 23, 2006, WaveCrest filed applications for special temporary authority and transfer of control regarding its 214 authorization. Both filings were made electronically through the International Bureau's IBFS database. WaveCrest paid the required filing fee of $895 for each application, or $1790, by credit card. Copies of the Form 159s evidencing payment are attached.

Shortly thereafter, WaveCrest was informed by a staff member of the International Bureau of a required revision to the application and, because applications cannot be amended on IBFS, the two applications would need to be withdrawn and re-filed as new, revised applications. On January 27, 2006, WaveCrest withdrew the two applications. Copies of the withdrawal acknowledgements are also attached. The revised applications were filed on January 30, 2006. WaveCrest also paid again the required filing fees of $895 for each re-filed application.

WaveCrest respectfully requests a refund in the amount of $1790 for the two withdrawn applications. Payment may be made by check on behalf of WaveCrest Communications, LLC and sent to the company's offices at 954 W. Washington Boulevard, Suite 30, Chicago, IL and directed to the attention of Roy L. Schiele, President of WaveCrest. To the extent it may be necessary, WaveCrest requests a waiver of Section 1.1113 of the rules to allow for the refund. As noted earlier, WaveCrest was unable to amend its applications via IBFS and had no choice but to withdraw and then re-file them. Moreover, the applications were withdrawn only four days after they were filed, before they were given substantive consideration or underwent processing by the Commission's staff.

Do not hesitate to contact me if there are any questions regarding this request or further information is needed. I thank you in advance for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Francis E. Fletcher, Jr.
