ITC-ASG-2005 1228-00528

Ms. Shawana Burnham,

Polar filed a Section 214 assignment application and then at the Division's request filed an STA. When the original assignment application was reviewed by a senior attorney it was determined that the ASG application should have been filed as a Pro Forma (which requires no fee) and she determined that the STA was not required. Therefore, we recommend that fees for both applications be refunded to the applicant.

Thank you.

Ms. Dortch:

In December of 2005 I filed an International 214 Authorization for Assignment or Transfer of Control. With the filing I sent in check number 33369 for $895. That check has been cashed.

In February of 2006 I filed a Special Temporary Authority regarding this same issue. With the filing I sent in check number 34143 for $895. This check has not been cashed. I sent this to you directly. A few days later I spoke to Joann Ekblad about the payment. She told me that it was incorrect to send it to you and that I would be getting it back. To date I have not yet received that check.

Today I spoke to Sumita Mukhoty. She informed me that this will be regarded as a pro forma filing and we are to be reimbursed for both filings. Per her instructions, this is my written request for reimbursement.

If you have any questions please let me know, I know it has been quite confusing!
Thanks.

Sincerely,

Shari Flanders
