

REQUEST FOR SPECIAL TEMPORARY AUTHORITY

ATTACHMENT 1

ANSWER TO QUESTION 10

Next Angel LLC (“Next Angel”), hereby requests Special Temporary Authority (“STA”) for a period of sixty (60) days to allow Next Angel to initiate service to customers pending approval of its application for permanent international Section 214 authority.

Next Angel is a new company that seeks to provide competitive international calling services to the public. Next Angel is owned by three established communications providers, Next Communications, Inc. (“Next Communications”), Angel Telecom (USA) Inc. (“Angel Telecom”), and Marcatel Telecommunications, LLC (“Marcatel”). With the experience these owners provide, Next Angel will be able to provide quality and even advanced calling services to the public. However, a prolonged delay in provision of service to customers will frustrate Next Angel’s ability to maintain the capital needed to commence a new competitive service to customers. Grant of this STA request is consistent with FCC precedent.<sup>1</sup>

Next Angel understands that because the company has non-U.S. ownership, the pending application for international Section 214 authority will need to be reviewed by the Executive Branch Agencies (“Team Telecom”). Next Angel looks forward to working with Team Telecom to answer any questions regarding homeland security and law enforcement issues. Next Angel seeks STA to operate during the application and review process.

Next Angel acknowledges that grant of its request for Special Temporary Authority will not prejudice action by the Commission, or other reviewing agencies, on the underlying Section 214 application. Next Angel also acknowledges that any authority granted pursuant to this request is subject to cancellation or modification upon notice, but without a hearing.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 12

Section 63.18(i):

Next Angel is not a foreign carrier, but through its ownership by Next Communications, Angel Telecom, and Marcatel, is affiliated with the following foreign carriers:

- ATSI Comunicaciones SA de CV, a telecommunications company in Mexico.

---

<sup>1</sup> See Teledirek Global Corp., Application for Special Temporary Authority to Offer International Services Pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as Amended, File No. ITC-STA-20121012-00261 (granted Oct. 25, 2012) (granting Teledirek Global Corp. STA to commence service pending Team Telecom’s review of an underlying application for international Section 214 authority).

- Marcatel Com, S.A. de C.V. (“Marcatel Mexico”) is a Mexican long distance and international carrier.
- Angel Telecom AG, a telecommunications company in Switzerland, provides international call services through a VoIP network.
- Connexcom AG provides prepaid calling services in Switzerland.

Next Angel has no other foreign carrier affiliations.

Section 63.18(j):

Pursuant to Section 63.18(j) of the Commission’s rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.18(j), Next Angel certifies that it is not a foreign carrier but that will provide service to Mexico, where it is affiliated with foreign carriers ATSI Comunicaciones SA de CV and Marcatel Mexico and Switzerland, where it is affiliated with foreign carriers Angel Telecom AG and Connexcom AG.

Section 63.18(k):

Mexico and Switzerland are WTO member countries.

Section 63.18(l):

Pursuant to Section 63.10 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.10, Next Angel qualifies for non-dominant classification on the route between the United States and Mexico because ATSI Comunicaciones SA de CV and Marcatel Mexico have no market power in Mexico. See id. § 63.10(a)(3). ATSI Comunicaciones SA de CV provides wholesale national and international long distance services in Mexico. ATSI Comunicaciones SA de CV lacks 50 percent market share in the international transport and the local access markets in Mexico. Marcatel Mexico is a competitive long distance and international carrier in Mexico, with less than a two percent market share. The Commission has previously found that "Marcatel [Mexico] has a limited market share, no market power, and a lack of control over bottleneck services or facilities."<sup>2</sup> This remains true today.

Next Angel also qualifies for non-dominant classification on the route between the United States and Switzerland because Angel Telecom AG and Connexcom AG have no market power in Switzerland. See id. § 63.10(a)(3). Both of these companies lack 50 percent market share in the international transport and the local access markets in Switzerland.

Moreover, ATSI Comunicaciones SA de CV, Marcatel Mexico, Angel Telecom AG and Connexcom AG are not listed on the Commission's List of Foreign Telecommunications Carriers that Are Presumed to Possess Market Power in Foreign Telecommunications Markets.<sup>3</sup> As such, Next Angel is presumptively classified as non-dominant on the U.S.-Mexico route and the U.S.-Switzerland route.

ANSWER TO QUESTION 16

Section 63.18(d):

Next Angel does not hold any international Section 214 authorizations. Next Angel has three direct owners: Next Communications, Inc. (“Next Communications”), Angel Telecom (USA) Inc. (“Angel Telecom”), and Marcatel Telecommunications, LLC (“Marcatel”). Next Communications holds an international Section 214 authorization to provide global facilities-based and resold services, File No. ITC-214-19990107-00014. Marcatel holds an authorization to provide global resale services, File No. ITC-214-20120913-00230.

Section 63.18(e)(3):

Next Angel is not applying for authority to acquire facilities or to provide services not covered by Sections 63.18(e)(1) and (e)(2) of the Commission’s rules, nor is it seeking additional authority under Section 63.18(e)(3).

Section 63.18(g):

Not applicable.
