Answer to Question 10:

Krush Communications, LLC ("Krush") and Agregato (USA) Inc. ("Agregato USA") (collectively the "Applicants"), through undersigned counsel and pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 214, and Sections 63.04 and 63.24 of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 63.04, 63.24, hereby request a 60 day extension of Special Temporary Authority ("STA") to allow the Applicants to consummate the transaction outlined in the underlying application (the "Application") filed in ITC-T/C-20131018-00286. The International Bureau granted the underlying STA on December 3, 2013 for a 60 day period.

As explained in the Application, on September 1, 2013, Agregato USA acquired all of the assets of Krush, including Krush's licenses, authorizations, customer accounts and receivables, customer and vendor contracts and agreements, equipment, and intellectual property. At present, Krush serves a total of 939,731 customers. Applicants' failure to obtain Commission approval for the transfer of control was inadvertent. Applicants were not aware of their obligation under the Communications Act and the Commission's rules to obtain approval for the proposed transaction until consulting with Regulatory Counsel, and very much regret any inconvenience this filing may cause the Commission or its staff.

Team Telecom's review of the Application is ongoing, and therefore, an extension of the STA is necessary to allow additional time for Team Telecom's review. Extension of the STA will serve the public interest, convenience and necessity because it will permit the continued provision of service without interruption to customers while the Commission considers the Application.

Applicants acknowledge that grant of this STA extension request will not prejudice any action the Commission may take on the underlying Application. Applicants further acknowledge that the STA may be revoked at any time by the Commission upon its own motion. Representatives of Team Telecom and the Department of Justice have been informed of this request and do not object.
