Re: Applications to Transfer Control of WC1 Cable, Inc.; Alaska Fiber Star L.L.C.,

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Awesome Communications, Inc. ("Awesome Communications"), by its undersigned counsel, hereby respectfully requests authority to withdraw, without prejudice to re-filing at a later date, its pending applications before the Federal Communications Commission ("Commission") for special temporary authority and permanent authority to transfer control of WC1 Cable, Inc., Alaska Fiber Star L.L.C., and Alaska Northstar Communications L.L.C. See Application for Special Temporary Authority to Transfer Control of Cable Landing Licenses, File Nos. SCL-LIC-INTR2002-00885 and -00887, (filed June 11, 2002); Application for Authority to Transfer Control of Cable Landing Licenses (filed June 11, 2002); Application for Special Temporary Authority to Transfer Control of Authorized Section 214 International Carrier, File No. ITC-STA-2002061 1-00284 (filed June 11, 2002); Application for Authority to "4 Transfer Control of Authorized Section 214 International Carrier, File No. ITC-T/C 2002061100283 (filed June 11, 2002); Application for Special Temporary Authority to Transfer Control of Authorized Section 214 Domestic Carriers (filed June 11, 2002); and Application for Authority to Transfer Control of Authorized Section 214 Domestic Carriers (filed June 11, 2002).

Because the above-referenced applications were never accepted for filing, Awesome

Communications requests a refund of the application filing fee amounts, totaling $2,445.00, if it is
