Answer to Question 13

Provide a narrative of the means by which the proposed transfer of control will take place:

On July 13, 2001, the Commission granted Telenor Satellite Mobile Services, Inc. (“TSMSI”) authority under Section 214 to provide Global or Limited Global Facilities-Based Service, under file number ITC-214-20010529-00341. TSMSI has since been renamed Telenor Satellite Services Holdings, Inc.

On December 18, 2001, the Commission released its Order and Authorization for the acquisition by Telenor Satellite Mobile Services, Inc. of the Comsat Mobile Communications business, FCC 01-369 (the “Telenor Order”). The Telenor Order authorized:

[T]he requested indirect foreign ownership of Telenor Satellite [Inc.] by Telenor Satellite Mobile [Services, Inc.] (100 percent), Telenor Satellite Mobile Ventures [AS] (100 percent); Telenor Broadband [Services AS] (100 percent); Telenor Communications [AS] (100 percent); and Telenor ASA and its Norwegian shareholders (up to 100 percent), with the exception of the Kingdom of Norway; and the Kingdom of Norway through its investment in Telenor ASA (up to and including 79 percent).

Since the release of the Telenor Order, certain non-substantive changes have occurred in the ownership chain of TSMSI and Telenor Satellite, Inc. (“TSI”) as noted in our 214 filing of June 28, 2005, File No. ITC-T/C-20050628-00240.

By this current filing, we wish to notify the Commission, in accordance with the Commission’s Rules,<sup>2</sup> that the following pro forma transaction was consummated on November 15, 2005:

An internal corporate restructuring occurred which streamlined the TSI ownership chain by: (1) transferring TSI-related assets and operations from Telenor Satellite Services AS (“TSS”), a Norway corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of Telenor ASA to TSSH; (2) removing TSS and Telenor Broadcast Holding AS as an indirect owner of TSI; and (3) concentrating 100% indirect ownership of TSI in TSSH.

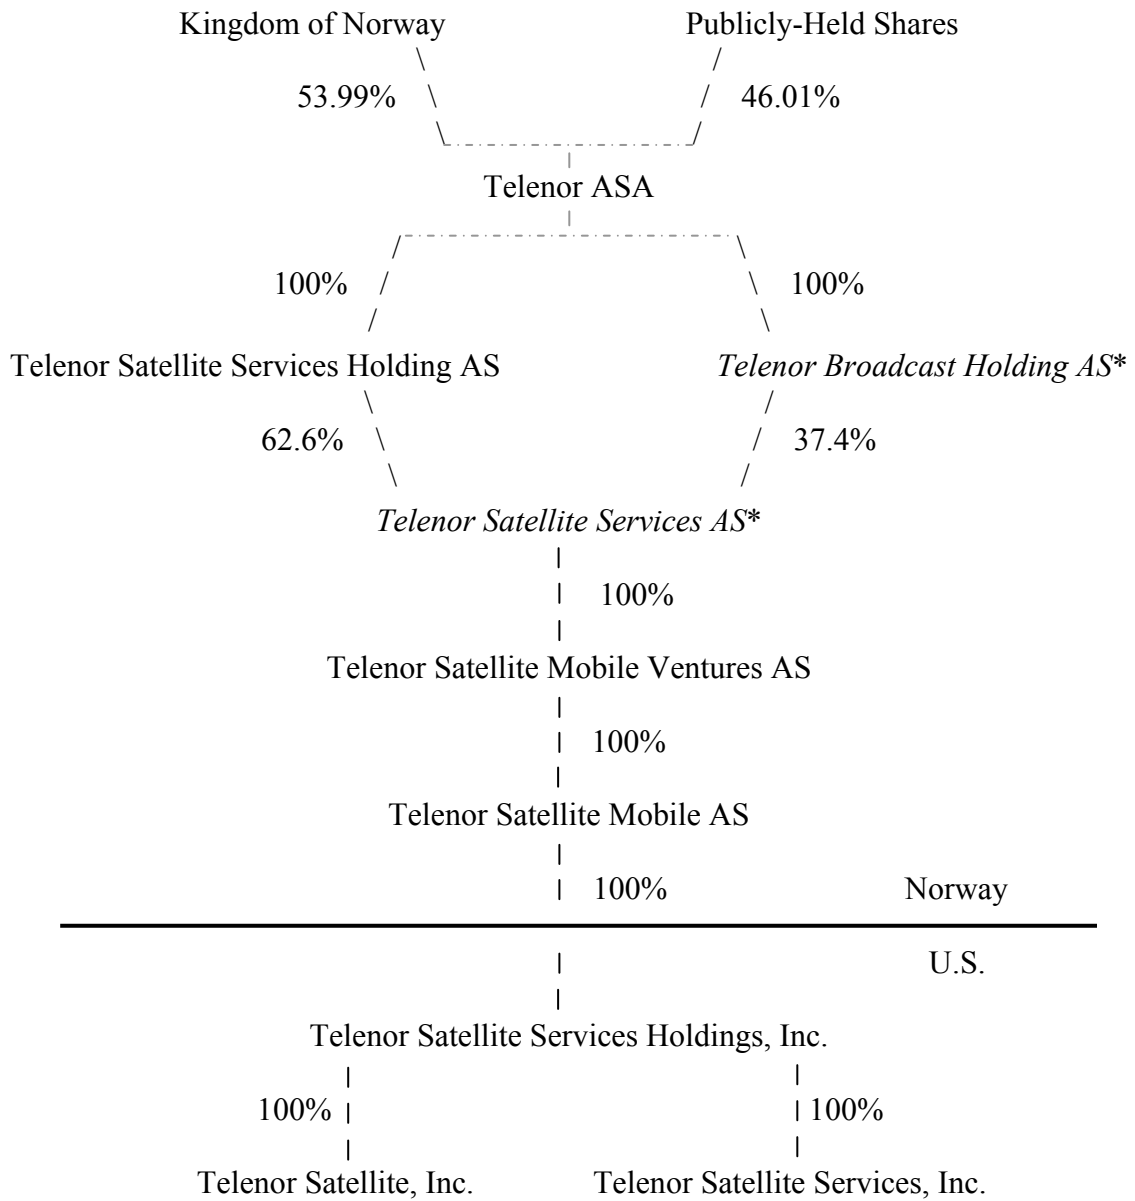

On October 25, 2002, the Commission granted Telenor Satellite, Inc. (“TSI”) authority under Section 214 to provide Global or Limited Global Facilities-Based Service, under file number ITC-214-20020926-00462.

The new ownership structure before and after this pro forma transaction is presented on the attached diagram.
