Dear Ms. Dortch:

This letter is provided as an erratum to previously-filed applications in the above-captioned proceedings. In brief, due to a typographical error, the name of a company in the chain of ownership of the transferee was entered incorrectly. This letter is provided after consultation with International Bureau and Wireline Competition Bureau staff in order to correct that inadvertent error.

Specifically, in the above-referenced applications, the parent entity of transferee Corona Holdings, Inc., was identified as "American Broadband Acquisition Corp. IV." That entity, however, is in fact named “American Broadband Acquisition Corp. III.” The address, contact information, and derivative ownership interest structures as described in the application remain unchanged.¹

Please do not hesitate to contact me should you have any questions or require additional information.

Respectfully submitted,

s/ Joshua Seidemann
