Sumita:

Per our discussion, attached is the recently filed FCC Form 602 showing the updated ownership percentages in elandia resulting from the new stock issue. All of the new shares were issued to existing shareholder Stanford International Bank Ltd. (SIBL). SIBL is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Stanford International Bank Holdings Limited (SIBHL). SIBHL is 100 percent owned by R. Allen Stanford. The 602 contains an ownership chart showing everything. There have been no changes in ownership structure or in the identity of elandia's shareholders, only slight changes in the ownership percentages held by those shareholders.
