Re: Notice of Consummation, File No. ITC-T/C-20090413-00164

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Rockwell Collins, Inc. (“Rockwell Collins”), by its attorneys and pursuant to Section 63.24(e)(4) of the Commission’s Rules, hereby notifies the Federal Communications Commission that the transfer of control of international Section 214 authorization from DataPath, Inc. (“DataPath”) to Rockwell Collins was consummated on June 1, 2009. A press release confirming the consummation is attached to this notice.

On May 21, 2009, the Commission issued a Public Notice granting the application for transfer of control of international section 214 authorization, ITC-214-19980713-00476, from DataPath to Rockwell Collins. The transfer of control of that authorization from DataPath to Rockwell Collins was consummated on June 1, 2009. As discussed with International Bureau staff, due to an inadvertent oversight, we are hereby late filing this Notice of Consummation and, as appropriate or necessary, respectfully request a waiver of Section 63.24(e)(4) of the Commission’s Rules.
