APPLICATIONS FILED BY FRONTIER COMMUNICATIONS CORPORATION AND VERIZON COMMUNICATIONS INC. FOR ASSIGNMENT OR TRANSFER OF CONTROL

PLEADING CYCLE ESTABLISHED

WC Docket No. 09-95

Comments/Petitions to Deny Due: September 21, 2009
Replies/Oppositions Due: October 13, 2009

Frontier Communications Corporation (Frontier) and Verizon Communications Inc. (Verizon) (together, Applicants) filed a series of applications pursuant to sections 214 and 310(d) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. §§ 214, 310(d).<sup>1</sup> In connection with the merger of Frontier and a wholly owned subsidiary of Verizon owning local exchange networks and other assets in Arizona, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Nevada, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, South Carolina, Washington, West Virginia, and Wisconsin, and a portion of Verizon's local exchange networks in California, the Applicants seek Commission approval for various assignments and transfers of control of licenses and authorizations for purposes of sections 214 and 310(d).

Frontier, a publicly traded corporation, is a full service communications provider focusing on rural areas and smaller cities. Frontier provides an array of telecommunications and broadband Internet access services, including local and long distance voice, broadband Internet access data, and video, through its wholly-owned operating companies. It currently has approximately 2.3 million access lines in 24 states.<sup>2</sup> No individual or company owns or controls 10% or more of Frontier's stock.

Verizon, a publicly traded corporation, is a full service communications provider with territories stretching across the United States and beyond.<sup>3</sup> No individual or company owns or controls 10% or more of Verizon's stock. Verizon proposes to create a new wholly-owned subsidiary, New Communications Holdings, Inc. (New Communications), to which it will transfer its subsidiaries owning its local wireline operations and serving long-distance customers in Arizona, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Nevada, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, South Carolina, Washington, West Virginia, and Wisconsin as well as a small number (but not all) of Verizon's exchanges in California, including those bordering Arizona, Nevada, and Oregon. These subsidiaries provide local exchange service and exchange access service, as well as long distance service, to approximately 4.8 million access lines. In some of these areas, these subsidiaries also provide high-speed Internet access services and multi-channel video services.

<sup>1</sup> See Verizon Communications Inc. and Frontier Communications Corporation Application for Consent to Assign and Transfer Control of Authority to Provide Global Facilities-Based and Global Resale International Telecommunications Services and to Assign and Transfer Control of Domestic Common Carrier Transmission Lines, Pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as Amended, WC Docket No. 09-95 (filed July 30, 2009).

On May 13, 2009, Frontier, Verizon and New Communications entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger. Pursuant to that agreement, as described above, Verizon will transfer control of the lines and licenses described above to New Communications. Verizon will then make a pro rata distribution of New Communications' stock to Verizon shareholders, which will be followed by an immediate stock-for-stock merger of New Communications with and into Frontier. Applicants state that New Communications shareholders will hold 68% of the merged company's stock and current Frontier shareholders the remaining 32%, while the Board of Directors will consist of nine members appointed by Frontier and three members appointed by Verizon. No individual or company will own or control 10% or more of Frontier's stock after the transaction.
