Reliance Globalcom Services, Inc. Notification of a Pro Forma Transfer of Control July 21, 2010

In accordance with Section 63.24(f) of the Commission's Rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.24(f), Reliance Globalcom Services, Inc. ("RGSI") hereby notifies the Commission of a pro forma transfer of control arising from the following two transactions that took place on June 22, 2010: (i) Reliance Globalcom B.V. ("RGBV"), a subsidiary of Reliance Communications Limited ("RCOM"), issued 1,750 new ordinary shares of its stock to Reliance Communications Infrastructure Limited ("RCIL"), a separate wholly-owned subsidiary of RCOM, and (ii) RCOM converted 339,562 redeemable preferred shares of RGBV stock into 3,396 ordinary shares of RGBV stock, thereby increasing RCOM's holding of RGBV ordinary shares to 14,516 shares. This change in ownership interests at the intermediate level above RGBV does not change the ultimate ownership or control of the international 214 authorization held by RGSI. RGSI therefore submits this notification of a pro forma transfer of control.

Response to Question 12 – Interlocking Directorates with Foreign Carriers

After the pro forma transfer of control, there will be interlocking directorates between the transferee and two foreign carriers. Specifically, RCIL directors Prof. J.Ramachandran and Mr. Satya Pal Talwar are also directors of RCOM, an Indian telecommunications provider, and RCIL director Mr. Gautam Doshi is also a director of Reliance Telecom Limited, an Indian telecommunications provider.

Response to Question 13 – Narrative Description of Pro Forma Transfer of Control Transactions

In accordance with Section 63.24(f) of the Commission’s Rules, 47 C.F.R. § 63.24(f), Reliance Globalcom Services, Inc. (“RGSI”) hereby notifies the Commission of a pro forma transfer of control arising from the following two transactions that took place on June 22, 2010: (i) Reliance Globalcom B.V. (“RGBV”), a subsidiary of Reliance Communications Limited (“RCOM”), issued 1,750 new ordinary shares of its stock to Reliance Communications Infrastructure Limited (“RCIL”), a separate wholly-owned subsidiary of RCOM, and (ii) RCOM converted 339,562 redeemable preferred shares of RGBV stock into 3,396 ordinary shares of RGBV stock, thereby increasing RCOM’s holding of RGBV ordinary shares to 14,516 shares.

Prior to the June 22, 2010 transactions, RCOM held 11,120 ordinary shares of RGBV stock, representing 100% of RGBV’s then-issued and outstanding ordinary shares. RGBV, in turn, owned 100% of RGSI in accordance with the Commission’s attribution rules.⁹ See Exhibit 1 hereto.

On June 22, 2010, RGBV issued 1,750 ordinary shares of its stock to RCIL, a separate wholly-owned subsidiary of RCOM, thereby inserting RCIL into the ownership chain below RCOM and above RGBV and RGSI. Also on June 22, 2010, RCOM converted 339,562 redeemable preferred shares of RGBV stock into 3,396 ordinary shares of RGBV stock, bringing RCOM’s total holding of RGBV ordinary shares to 14,516 shares. After the June 22, 2010, transactions, RCOM directly owns 89.24% of RGBV ordinary shares and RCIL directly owns the remaining 10.76%.¹⁰ In contrast, the ownership structure between RGBV and RGSI remains unchanged. RCOM therefore continues to own, through indirect means and via the Commission’s attribution rules,¹¹ 100% of RGSI. See Exhibit 2 hereto.

¹¹ See 47 C.F.R. § 63.18 Note to Paragraph (h).

This change in ownership interests at the intermediate level above RGBV does not change the ultimate ownership or control of the international 214 authorization held by RGSi. RCOM continues to be the ultimate corporate parent of RGSi, and RCOM, in turn, continues to be majority-owned and controlled by Mr. Anil Ambani.

As the foregoing transactions (1) resulted in no actual change in control over RGSi; (2) merely inserted a separate wholly owned subsidiary of RCOM into the ownership chain as an intermediate minority shareholder in RGBV, the indirect and intermediary parent of RGSi; and (3) allows RCOM to retain, indirectly and via the Commission's attribution rules, 100% ownership over RGSi, they were pro forma as defined in Section 63.24 of the Commission's Rules. 47 C.F.R. § 63.24(d) ("Transfers of control or assignments that do not result in a change in the actual controlling party are considered non-substantial or pro forma."); see also id., Note 2 to Paragraph (d) (stating that "[a]ssignment or transfer from a corporation to a wholly owned direct or indirect subsidiary thereof, or vice versa" and "[c]orporate reorganization that involves no substantial change in the beneficial ownership of the corporation" are presumptively pro forma). RGSi further certifies, as required by Rule 63.24(f), that this pro forma transaction, taken together with all previous pro forma transactions, does not result in a change in the licensee's ultimate control. See 47 C.F.R. § 63.24(f).
