International Section 214 Authorization information pursuant to Section 63.18(d)

Applicant Public Interest Network Services, Inc. (“PINS”) holds the subject international Section 214 authorization for international resale pursuant to File No. ITC-214-2011-131-00021.<sup>1</sup> An affiliate of Transferee CornerStone Telephone Company, L.L.C., Richmond Connections, Inc., also holds authorization for international resale pursuant to File No. ITC-214-19991019-00660.

---

<sup>1</sup> On January 31, 2011, PINS filed an application for Special Temporary Authorization (“STA”) to continue the provision of international resold services pending action on the referenced application for permanent authorization. The International Bureau granted the STA request on February 1, 2011 (File No. ITC-STA-20110131-00020). Applicants acknowledge that grant of this request for transfer of control of the subject authorization is without prejudice to any enforcement action by the Commission for PINS’s non-compliance with the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, or the Commission’s Rules.

Answer to Question 13 regarding the proposed means of transfer:

Transferee CornerStone Telephone Company, L.L.C. (“CornerStone”) proposes the purchase of 100% of the issued and outstanding stock of Transferor Public Interest Network Services, Inc. (“PINS”), resulting in PINS’s continued operation as a wholly-owned subsidiary of CornerStone.

Answer to Question 20 regarding streamlined processing pursuant to Section 63.18(p):

Streamlined processing of the instant Application is appropriate because (1) no party hereto is affiliated with a foreign carrier; and (2) no party hereto is affiliated with a dominant US carrier whose international switched or private line services are to be resold.
