Notification of non-substantial Pro-forma Transfer of Control pursuant to Section 214 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended)	ITC-214-20100622-002262

Pursuant to sections 63.24(d) and (f) of the Commission’s rules, §§ 47 C.F.R 63.24(d), (f), LatinTalk, LLC (“LATINTALK”) respectfully notifies the Commission of a non-substantial pro-forma transfer of control of regarding its section 214 authorization, File No. ITC-20100622-002262. One of LATINTALK’s shareholders has transferred its 10% interest to two other shareholders.

Description of the Transaction

On May 30, 2011, Julio Cesar Bravo Estrada assigned its membership interest of 10% in LATINTALK to the two remaining members, Jorge Aaron Ulloa Yong and Jose Luis Carrillo Salas (5% each). As a result of the assignment of membership interest, the two named remaining members have each raised their interest from 45% each to 50% each.

Because LATINTALK continues to have control of the license, and the two remaining members continue to have a controlling interest, the transfer of control is considered pro forma under the Commission’s rules. See 47 C.F.R. 63.24(d) (“Transfers of control...that do not result in a change in the actual controlling party are considered non-substantial pro forma.”); id., Note 2

(stating that “[t]ransfer by which certain stockholders retire and the interest transferred is not a controlling one” is presumptively pro forma).
