Re: *ARINC-Rockwell Collins, Inc. International Section 214 Transfer of Control
Application, File No. ITC-T/C-20130830-00239*

Dear Ms. Mukhoty:

As requested by the International Bureau staff, Rockwell Collins, Inc. ("Rockwell Collins") provides the following information to supplement the above-captioned application:

1. Following consummation of the proposed transaction, Radio Holdings, Inc. will be a direct subsidiary of Rockwell Collins.
2. As set forth in Schedule 13G as filed by Capital World Investors with the Securities and Exchange Commission, Capital World Investors is a division of Capital Research and Management Company. Capital World Investors is deemed to be the beneficial owner of 11.8 percent of Rockwell Collins as a result of Capital Research and Management Company acting as an investment adviser to various investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940.
3. As required by the Commission's rules, all 10-percent-or-greater owners of the proposed transferee Rockwell Collins were disclosed in the application for consent to the transfer of control of ARINC Inc. The only 10-percent-or-greater owner of Rockwell Collins is Capital World Investors (which is deemed to be the beneficial owner of 10 percent or more of Rockwell Collins under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 as a result of Capital Research and Management Company acting as an investment adviser to various investment companies (i.e., mutual funds, closed-end funds, and/or unit investment trusts) that have acquired publicly traded shares of Rockwell Collins).

As always, please let us know if you or other FCC staff have any questions.

Sincerely,
