Answer to Question 13

On June 30, 2012, ACG redeemed Mr. Vreeland's 50% interest in the Company. After the transaction, Mr. Vreeland has zero equity or voting interest in the Company and Mr. Mohaymen became the 99 percent owner of ACG. As a result of the transaction, Mr. Mohaymen has 99 percent equity and voting interest in the Company. The parties have filed the instant application to approve the transfer of control of ACG from Mr. Vreeland.

The transaction will have no adverse impact on ACG's existing customers. The transfer will involve no disruption or impairment of services to customers, the facilities used to provide such services, or the rates, terms, and conditions of such services. All existing contracts and procedures of ACG will remain in place after the transaction. Furthermore, ACG's current management team will remain intact and will continue to manage day-to-day operations of the Company. Accordingly, this transaction will be transparent to the customers of ACG.

Applicants' failure to obtain Commission approval for the transfer of control was inadvertent. Applicants were not aware of their obligation under the Communications Act and the Commission's rules to obtain approval for the transaction until consulting with counsel, and very much regret any inconvenience this filing may cause the Commission or its staff. Again, given the nature of the transaction as outlined above, ACG's current customers will not be affected by the acquisition. By a separate filing, Applicants will request Special Temporary Authority ("STA") to allow ACG to continue providing service to customers while the Commission considers this Application.

Rule 63.18 (n):

Transferee certifies that it has not agreed to accept special concessions directly or indirectly from any foreign carrier with respect to any U.S. international route where the foreign carrier possesses market power on the foreign end of the route and will not enter into such agreements in the future.

Rule 63.18 (o):

Rule 63.18 (p) (Answer to Question 20):

This Application qualifies for streamlined processing pursuant to Section 63.12 because the Applicants are not affiliated with a foreign carrier in a destination market, and are not affiliated with any dominant U.S. carriers whose international switched or private line services the Applicants seek authority to resell. Accordingly, this application should be granted, pursuant to Section 63.12(a), 14 days after the date of public notice listing this Application as accepted for filing.
