Answer to Question 13

This filing provides the notice required by Section 63.24(f)(2) of a pro forma transfer of control, as defined by Section 63.24, of the Benkelman Telephone Company, Inc. (“Benkelman”), the parent of BWTelcom Long Distance, Inc. The equity capital of Benkelman is allocated among 950 shares, of which 30 are voting and 920 are non-voting. The non-voting shares have no authority over the company. Although neither de facto nor de jure control of Benkelman changed, effective December 31, 2012, the Kacey L. Raile Harper Revocable Trust (“Kacey Revocable Trust”) received 353 non-voting shares from the Randall J. Raile Revocable Trust and 353 non-voting shares from Loretta M. Raile, who had received such shares on December 31, 2012, from the Randall J. Raile Revocable Trust. The effect of these transfers was to increase the percentage of the total number of shares owned by the Kacey Revocable Trust from 0% to 74%. To the extent the ownership of non-voting shares is contemplated by Section 63.24(c) the transfer appears to be “considered a transfer of control” as a result of the increase in ownership of the total shares of stock to more than 50%. The Randall J. Raile Revocable Trust remains the owner of 93% of the voting stock of Benkelman Telephone Company, Inc., and BWTelcom Long Distance, Inc. remains its wholly owned subsidiary.
