<sup>1</sup> UPM is also filing with the Bureau a letter to provide it notice of the change in the licensee’s name from UPM Marketing, Inc., to UPM Technology, Inc.

100 percent equity of UPM Technology, Inc., (f/k/a UPM Marketing, Inc., FRN 0018290007)

Principal Business: telecommunications

Answer to Question 13:

UPM files this notice to inform the Bureau that the ownership information provided in its application for international 214 authorization inadvertently contained incorrect information. The application, which was accepted for filing on Dec. 5, 2008, incorrectly stated that Bruce N. Tran and Ben Sanchez each owned 50 percent of the company. In fact, Mr. Tran owned 66 percent of the company while Mr. Sanchez owned 33 percent. Correcting this error is the primary purpose of this filing.

UPM also notes that on December 31, 2009, it redeemed shares from a minority shareholder.

Prior to the redemption, shares in UPM were distributed as follows:

Shareholder	Percentage
Bruce N. Tran	66%
Ben Sanchez	33%

Following the redemption and presently, shares in UPM are distributed as follows:

Shareholder	Percentage
Bruce N. Tran	100%
Ben Sanchez	0%

The result is that 100 percent of the outstanding shares in UPM are now owned by Mr. Tran.<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup> On January 31, 2009, UPM (f/k/a UPM Marketing, Inc., FRN 0018290007) which is incorporated in Oregon and holds international 214 Authorization ITC-214-20081120-00511, merged with a similarly-named Nevada entity called UPM Marketing, Inc. (FRN 0018617464). The Nevada entity did not hold any 214 authorization. At the conclusion of the merger, the licensee and Oregon entity, UPM, was the surviving entity. Mr. Tran and Mr. Sanchez continued to own the same percentages in the licensee and Mr. Tran continued to be its majority shareholder.
