Notification of the Pro Forma Transfer of Control of DTR Holdings, LLC and Innovative Long Distance, Inc.

Pursuant to Section 64.24(f) of the Commission's rules,¹ the Commission is hereby notified of the internal reorganization and pro forma transfer of control of DTR Holdings, LLC ("DTR"), which holds an international Section 214 authorization, and its wholly-owned direct subsidiary Innovative Long Distance, Inc. ("ILD"). Because the transfer of control did not result in a change in the ultimate control of DTR or ILD, the transfer is properly classified as pro forma.

Answer to Question 13

ATN International, Inc. (“ATN”), DTH’s ultimate parent company, underwent an internal corporate reorganization on September 16, 2016. As part of the reorganization, a new intermediate holding company – ATN VI, Inc. – was inserted in the ownership chain above ATN VI Holdings, LLC. ATN remains in control of DTH and ILD, thus the reorganization did not affect the ultimate control of DTH or ILD and was pro forma in nature. The following chart illustrates the pro forma reorganization.
