Answer to Question 11

Pursuant to Section 63.18(h) of the Commission’s rules, the following describes the entities that directly or indirectly hold a ten percent or greater ownership interest in WOW!. Exhibit A also includes a diagram showing the equity ownership of the company.

WOW! holds 100 percent of the ownership interests of WideOpenWest Finance, LLC (“WOW Finance”). WOW Finance holds 100 percent of the ownership interest of the WOW Companies either directly or through various wholly-owned intermediary holding companies, including Kite Parent Corp. and Knology, Inc., all of which are Delaware corporations or limited liability companies. The address for all of these entities is 7887 E. Belleview Ave., Suite 1000, Englewood, Colorado 80111.

Avista Capital Managing Member, LLC (“Avista”), through various intervening holding companies and investment vehicles (the “Avista Intermediate Entities”), holds approximately 43 percent of WOW! and the WOW Companies. The only Avista Intermediate Entities that hold a 10 percent or greater ownership interest in WOW! and the WOW Companies include: (1) Avista Capital Partners, L.P. (“Avista Capital”), a Delaware limited partnership, which has an approximate 10 percent ownership interest; and (2) ACP Racecar Co-Invest, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Avista Co-Invest”), which has an approximate 21 percent ownership interest. Avista Capital Partners GP, LLC (“Avista GP”), a Delaware limited liability company, is the general partner of Avista Capital. Avista Capital Partners III GP, L.P. (“Avista III GP”), a Delaware limited partnership, is the management member of Avista Co-Invest. Avista is the managing member of Avista GP and the general partner of Avista III GP. The only voting members of Avista are: Thompson Dean, Steven Webster, and David Burgstahler, all of whom are United States citizens.² The address for the entities and individuals associated with Avista is 65 East 55th Street, 18th Floor, New York, New York 10022.

Crestview, L.L.C. (“Crestview”), through various intervening holding companies and investment vehicles (the “Crestview Intermediate Entities”), holds around 28 percent of WOW! and the WOW Companies. The only Crestview Intermediate Entity that holds a 10 percent or greater ownership interest in WOW! and the WOW Companies is Crestview W1 Holdings, L.P. (“Crestview Holdings”), a Delaware limited partnership, which has an approximate 22 percent ownership interest. The limited partnership interests in Crestview Holdings are held directly by

Crestview Partners III Co-Investors, L.P. (“Crestview Partners Co-Investors”), a Cayman Islands entity. The limited partnership interests in Crestview Partners Co-Investors are directly held primarily (99.8 percent) by Crestview III W1, L.P. (“Crestview III W1”), a Delaware entity. The majority (68.8 percent) of the limited partnership equity interests in Crestview III W1 are held by Crestview Partners III, L.P. (“Crestview Partners III”), a Cayman Islands entity. The general partner of Crestview Partners III is Crestview Partners III GP, L.P. (“Crestview Partners III GP”), a Cayman Islands entity. Crestview is the general partner of Crestview Partners III GP. Neither Crestview Partners III GP nor Crestview will have a 10 percent or greater ownership interest in Crestview Partners III, but as the managers of the Crestview private equity funds, they exercise 100 percent control over the overall Crestview investment in WOW! and the WOW Companies.

Pursuant to the above structure, the investment committee of Crestview Partners III GP controls the Crestview investment. That committee is made up of ten members, each of whom exercises one vote. Those members are Barry S. Volpert, Thomas S. Murphy, Jr., Jeffrey A. Marcus, Robert J. Hurst, Richard M. DeMartini, Robert V. Delaney, Jr., Brian P. Cassidy, Quentin Chu, Alexander M. Rose and Adam J. Klein. All of the members are U.S. citizens, with the exception of Quentin Chu, who is a U.K. citizen. The investment committee operates by a majority rule with respect to voting, selling and making follow-on investments in portfolio companies, and none of the foregoing persons has the power individually to vote or dispose of any interest in WOW! or the WOW Companies.

The address for each of the Crestview entities described above is c/o Crestview Advisors, L.L.C., 667 Madison Avenue, 10th Floor, New York, NY, 10065.

No other entity or individual directly or indirectly holds a 10 percent or greater ownership interest in WOW! or the WOW Companies.

Answer to Question 12

Brian P. Cassidy is a member of the board of WOW!, a member of the investment committee of Crestview Partners III GP, and an officer of several Crestview entities. He is also a director of Interoute Communications Holdings, S.A., a European telecommunications services provider with focus on European markets, including Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Finland, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, the Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Romania, the Slovak Republic, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, and the United Kingdom, and with offices and points of presence outside Europe, including in the United States, Hong Kong, Russia, Singapore and Turkey.

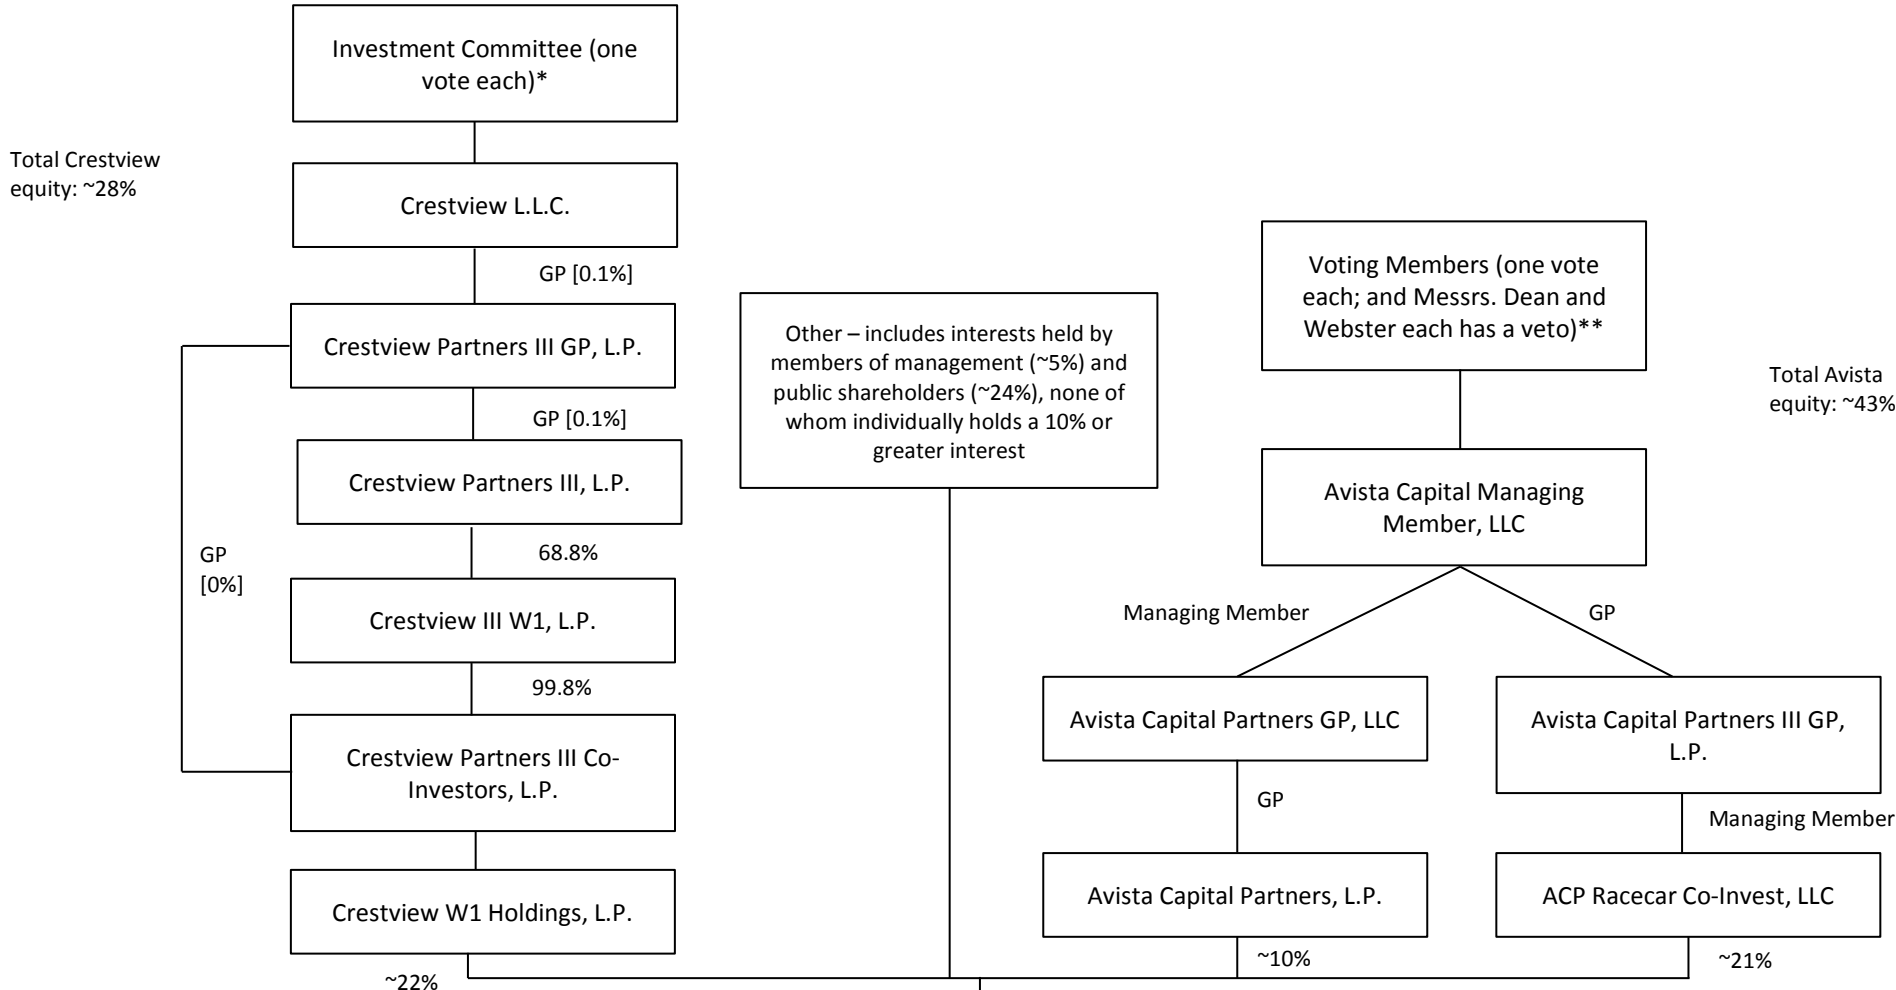

Answer to Question 13

Although neither Avista nor Crestview previously held 50 percent or more of the equity of WOW!, they shared negative control of WOW! through their rights to each appoint three directors to WOW!’s board and their contractual right to veto decisions regarding the appointment of WOW!’s CEO. The composition of WOW!’s board of directors, however, recently changed. Specifically, WOW! increased the size of and appointed additional independent directors to the board.³ Consequently, Avista and Crestview no longer share negative control of the board. Control of the WOW Companies now ultimately resides with WOW!, and no particular entity or entities control WOW!.

³ Two new directors joined the board on August 7, 2017 and September 5, 2017, respectively.

Exhibit A - Equity Ownership Structure
