Answer to Question 13

On November 7, 2022, ATN completed an internal corporate reorganization that resulted in the insertion of a new holding company, Alloy, Inc. (“Alloy”), a direct wholly owned subsidiary of ATN, in Commnet’s ownership structure. Commnet was previously a direct wholly owned subsidiary of ATN and is now an indirect subsidiary of ATN. Pursuant to the terms of a contribution agreement, ATN contributed all of the issued and outstanding equity interests held by ATN in Commnet to Alloy in exchange for shares of Alloy’s Series A Preferred Stock. Immediately upon completion of the pro forma transaction, Commnet became a direct wholly owned subsidiary of Alloy and an indirect wholly owned subsidiary of ATN. Organizational diagrams depicting Commnet’s ownership structure before and immediately upon completion of the pro forma transaction are attached as Exhibit A.

The applicants hereby certify that the assignment was pro forma and that, together with all previous pro forma transactions, did not result in a change in the actual controlling party of Commnet.

Exhibit A¹

Pre-Transaction Ownership of Commnet

Post-Transaction Ownership of Commnet
