Dear Mr. Blalock:

Enclosed please find a receipt-stamped copy of a Section 214 application for Special Temporary Authority ("STA") that we filed on Friday, March 24, 2000, on behalf of Intellesys Group, Inc. ("Intellesys"). In addition, enclosed please find a copy of the underlying Section 214 application. Both applications were filed electronically. We have been told by a Federal Communications Commission ("Commission") staff member that due to a technical malfunction involving the Commission's data exchange process with Mellon Bank, the Commission's review of Intellesys's streamlined Section 214 application will be delayed three or four weeks. Intellesys is awaiting the approval of its application to commence providing international common carrier service and thus will be materially financially prejudiced by this delay. Hence, at the suggestion of Commission staff, we filed the enclosed STA application on behalf of Intellesys.

Please do not hesitate to contact us with any questions that you may have regarding this matter or if we can be of any assistance with your processing of this application.

Sincerely,

Phil Marchesiello, Esq.
