Re: Lockheed Martin Corporation
Amendment of Applications to Launch and Operate Satellites in Radio Navigation Service
File Nos. SAT-AMD-20030730-00149 et al.

Dear Ms. Dortch:

PanAmSat Corporation ("PanAmSat") hereby withdraws its Comments<sup>1</sup> on the above-referenced amendment ("Amendment") filed by Lockheed Martin Corporation ("Lockheed Martin").

At the time that PanAmSat filed its Comments, Lockheed Martin had proposed in its Amendment to locate one of its space stations at 125° W.L. instead of 129° W.L.<sup>2</sup> PanAmSat did not object to this proposed relocation, but used its comments to draw the Commission's attention to the need for coordination between Lockheed Martin and PanAmSat, which already operates a satellite at 125° W.L.<sup>3</sup>

Lockheed Martin has since amended its application further to request an orbital location of 133° W.L. and to propose using the same bus for its payload as the bus to be used by PanAmSat's Galaxy 15 satellite at 133° W.L.<sup>4</sup> Because this subsequent
