By the Chief, Satellite Division, International Bureau:

1. On December 16, 2003, Commission staff requested certain information¹ from Mobile Satellite Ventures Subsidiary LLC (“MSV”) regarding pending waiver requests associated with MSV’s Ancillary Terrestrial Component (“ATC”) application.² In a responsive letter dated December 30, 2003, counsel for MSV submitted further information,³ requesting that some of the information be treated as confidential and providing redacted copies for the public application files.⁴ MSV alleged that the redacted information pertaining to the current and projected demand for its satellite services is commercially sensitive.⁵ MSV also alleged that disclosure of redacted information pertaining to the projected lifetimes of its current satellites is also commercially sensitive.⁶

2. On March 17, 2004, Inmarsat Ventures Limited (“Inmarsat”) filed, pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”),⁷ a request to inspect the documents submitted to the Commission by MSV in the MSV December 30 Letter.⁸ MSV opposed Inmarsat’s request.⁹ Inmarsat, together with any other individuals or entities that subsequently submit a request, pursuant to FOIA, to review these documents are each hereafter referred to as a “Reviewing Party.”

3. We conclude that requiring MSV to disclose the redacted information contained in the MSV December 30, 2003 letter to a Reviewing Party pursuant to the terms of a protective order will provide adequate protection to the confidential information included in the documents, without depriving a Reviewing Party of a meaningful opportunity to comment, as required by the Administrative Procedure Act. Consequently, the Division hereby adopts the attached Protective Order in Appendix A. We require MSV to provide copies of the documents to a Reviewing Party, once that Reviewing Party has executed and delivered the Acknowledgement of Confidentiality that is part of the Protective Order attached to this Order.

4. In the Confidential Information Policy Order,¹⁰ the Commission decided that, if the Commission issued a protective order, interested parties generally will be given at least 30 days from the date the protected material becomes available to file or supplement a petition to deny.¹¹ Given the relatively small amount of information that is becoming available subject to this Order, the comment and response periods have been shortened.

5. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that Mobile Satellites Ventures Subsidiary LLC IS REQUIRED to provide to Inmarsat Ventures Limited (and any other Reviewing Party that subsequently becomes a party to the Protective Order), a copy of the documents submitted to the Commission on December 30, 2003 under the terms of the Protective Order attached to this Order, once Inmarsat Ventures Limited, or any other Reviewing Party, as appropriate, has executed such Protective Order.

6. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that comments in the underlying proceeding, File Nos. SAT-MOD-20031118-00333, SAT-AMD-20031118-00332, and SES-MOD-20031118-01879, with respect to the information available for disclosure pursuant to this protective order must be filed with the Commission on or before 21 days from the release of this Order and responses must be filed on or before 28 days from the release of this Order.

APPENDIX A

Protective Order

1. Introduction. On December 16, 2003, Commission staff requested certain information¹ from Mobile Satellite Ventures Subsidiary LLC (“MSV”) regarding pending waiver requests associated with MSV’s Ancillary Terrestrial Component (“ATC”) application.² In a responsive letter dated December 30, 2003, counsel for MSV submitted further information,³ requesting that some of the information be treated as confidential and providing redacted copies for the public application files.⁴ MSV alleged that the redacted information pertaining to the current and projected demand for its satellite services is commercially sensitive.⁵ MSV also alleged that disclosure of redacted information pertaining to the projected lifetimes of its current satellites is also commercially sensitive.⁶

2. On March 17, 2004, Inmarsat Ventures Limited (“Inmarsat”) filed, pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”),⁷ a request to inspect the documents submitted to the Commission by MSV with the MSV December 30 Letter.⁸ MSV opposed Inmarsat’s request.⁹ Inmarsat, together with any other individuals or entities that subsequently submit a request, pursuant to FOIA, to review these documents are each hereafter referred to as a “Reviewing Party.” Consequently, the Satellite Division (“Division”) has adopted this Protective Order to ensure that these documents are afforded adequate protection. This Order reflects the manner in which “Confidential Information,” as that term is defined herein, is to be treated and is not intended to constitute a resolution of the merits concerning whether any Confidential Information would be released publicly by the Commission upon proper request under the Freedom of Information Act or other applicable law or regulation, including 47 C.F.R. § 0.442.

8. Prohibited Copying. If, in the judgment of the MSV, the documents contain information so sensitive that it should not be copied by anyone, the relevant pages of the documents shall bear the legend "Copying Prohibited," and no copies of such pages, in any form, shall be made. Consistent with the independent authority of any court, department or agency, such notification must be accomplished such that the MSV has a full opportunity to oppose such production prior to the production or disclosure of the documents or Confidential Information.

15. Violations of Protective Order. Should a person that has properly obtained access to Confidential Information under this Protective Order violate any of its terms, that person shall immediately convey that fact to the Commission and to the MSV. Nothing in this Protective Order shall limit any other rights and remedies available to the MSV at law or in equity against any person using Confidential Information in a manner not authorized by this Protective Order.

16. Termination of Proceeding. The provisions of this Protective Order shall not terminate at the conclusion of this proceeding. Within two weeks after conclusion of this proceeding and any administrative or judicial review, persons described by paragraph 6 (Permissible Disclosure) shall destroy or return to the MSV the documents and all copies of the same.
