International Bureau Satellite Division Information ORBITAL DEBRIS AMENDMENTS FILED

On October 13, 2005, the Satellite Division released a Public Notice announcing the effective date of the Commission's orbital debris mitigation disclosure rules.<sup>1</sup> The Public Notice also reminded applicants that they must amend, within 30 days of the effective date, all pending requests for Commission authorization that entail submission of technical information pursuant to Section 25.114 to include disclosure of the system's orbital debris mitigation plans. The orbital debris mitigation disclosure rules became effective on October 19, 2005, and amendments to pending applications were due by November 18, 2005.

The amendments listed below were filed in response to the Public Notice. This listing is for informational purposes only. No determination has been made whether the listed documents are complete and contain all of the information required by the Commission's rules.
