Re: Section 25.170 Report
Call Sign S2862

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On June 30, 2016, Terra Bella Technologies Inc. (Terra Bella) filed a "Notification of SkySat-3 Satellite Launch, In-Orbit Testing, and Operation" (Notification) updating the Commission on the status of its SkySat constellation and designating the undersigned as the technical contact for the constellation.¹ While not denominated as an annual report, that Notification contained information consistent with the reporting requirements under Section 25.170 of the Commission's rules.

For clarity and completeness, Terra Bella here summarizes the information required under Section 25.170 for its SkySat constellation:

| | Year ending May 31, 2015 | Year ending May 31, 2016 |
|---|--|--|
| SkySat satellites not in orbit or otherwise not performing to specifications (§ 25.170(a)) | None | None |
| Terra Bella contact for interference problems and emergency response (§ 25.170(b)) | Craig Scheffler Technical Program Manager, Satellite Ground Systems 1061 Terra Bella Ave Mountain View CA 94043 cscheffler@google.com 720-238-5634 | Craig Scheffler Technical Program Manager, Satellite Ground Systems 1061 Terra Bella Ave Mountain View CA 94043 cscheffler@google.com 720-238-5634 |
| Authorized replacement satellites (§ 25.170(c)) | None | None |

Terra Bella
Section 25.170 Report
February 10, 2017

We ask the Commission to consider this supplemental filing, together with the Notification dated June 30, 2016, as fulfilling Terra Bella's obligations under Section 25.170 of the Commission's rules for the 2015 and 2016 reporting periods. By June 30, 2017, Terra Bella will file an annual report pursuant to Section 25.170 for the year ending May 31, 2017.

Respectfully submitted,

Craig Scheffler
