Subject: Planet Labs Inc.
Notification of Planet Headquarters and Mission Operations Center Move
Space Station Call Sign S2912 (Flock) and S2862 (Skysat)

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On November 16, 2018 Planet Labs completed the move of its Planet Headquarters, previously located at 346th 9th Street, San Francisco CA 94103, to its new location with the address 645 Harrison Street, San Francisco 94107. The move includes the primary mission operations center and control point for Flock satellites (call sign S2912), and the backup mission operations center and backup control point for Skysat satellites (call sign S2862). Note that the primary mission operations center and control point for Skysat satellites remains unchanged with the address 1245 Terra Bella Ave. Mountain View CA. 94043. The contact information for the resolution of interference problems and emergency purposes remains the same as most recently reported pursuant to section 25.170 of the commission rules¹. The Commission Registration System (CORES) has been updated for the associated FCC Registration Numbers (FRN).

Should you have any questions, please contact the undersigned.

Respectfully submitted,

PLANET LABS INC.
