prerogatives, nor any priority in the provision of space capacity.

Chapter II– Amount of the Right to Exploit Satellites

2.1. The amount of the Right to Exploit Brazilian Satellites is four million, three hundred and forty-five thousand, three hundred and forty-five reais (R$ 4,345,345.00), to be paid, in this deed, on demand to the Telecommunications Inspection Fund - FISTEL.

Chapter III– Technical Project Commitments

3.1. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER undertakes to inform Anatel in advance of technical changes to the project, regarding Annex 2 of this Agreement, under penalty of extinction of the Right to Exploit and loss of the amount paid for this right referred to in item 2.1.

3.1.1. No changes to the commitments mentioned below shall be allowed, being the SATELLITE EXPLOITER subject to the expiry of the Right to Exploit and loss of the amount paid for this right referred to in item 2.1.:

a) Period of five (5) years for the start of the regular commercial operation in the space segment, except in situations of force majeure or fortuitous events.

b) Minimum requirements of the project, as set forth in Annex 1 of this Agreement (Public Tender Notice No. 003/2001/SPV-ANATEL).

Chapter IV – Method, Means and Conditions for Satellite Exploitation

4.1. The space segment shall be commercially exploited in accordance with the terms of the Public Tender Notice and in compliance with the conditions set forth in Annex 2 of this Agreement.

4.2. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER shall not be entitled to the permanence of the conditions existing on the execution date of this Agreement, and shall comply with the new conditions imposed by Law and the regulations, within the established periods.

4.3. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER shall ensure that the access to its satellite(s), in the national territory, is only made by entities holding a grant, permit or authorization to exploit telecommunications services or by the bodies identified in item 5.15.

4.4. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER shall exploit the provision of space capacity at its own expense and risk, and any losses arising from its exploitation shall be its sole and exclusive liability.

4.5. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER shall be solely liable for any damage that it may cause to the Providers or third parties by virtue of the exploitation of the provision of space capacity, exempting Anatel of any and all liabilities.

4.6. As long as this Right to Exploit is in force, the SATELLITE EXPLOITER undertakes to ensure the effective existence, in national territory, of the centers for resolution and implementation of the strategic, managerial and technical decisions involved in the fulfillment of this Agreement, including reproducing such obligation in the composition and decision-making procedures of its management bodies.

4.6.1. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER, shall demonstrate, with provisions in its Bylaws, that it complies with the provisions of item 4.6, within a period of up to six (6) months from the publication date of this Agreement in the Official Federal Gazette.

4.7. In view of the interest of collectivity, the interruption of the provision of space capacity, in an emergency situation or after prior notice, for reasons of a technical nature or the safety of people and goods, or in the event of default by the provider, shall not characterize the discontinuity of the service.

4.7.1. The interruption of the service due to astronomical events shall not characterize discontinuity of the provision of space capacity, however, the SATELLITE EXPLOITER undertakes to inform all providers in advance of the occurrence of these events.

4.8. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER may only transfer this Right to Exploit, or make any amendments to it that may characterize the transfer of control, after receiving the consent of Anatel, subject to regulatory requirements.

Chapter V – Rights and Duties of the SATELLITE EXPLOITER

5.1. The rights and duties of the SATELLITE EXPLOITER are those set forth by Law No. 9.472/97, by the relevant regulations and by this Agreement.

5.2. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER undertakes to maintain, throughout the period of the Right to Exploit, the commitments assumed in Annex 2 of this Agreement, in addition to all further conditions that allowed its qualification, as provided for in the Public Tender Notice and its

Annexes, including to respect and comply with all the conditions and limitations imposed on the space segment that is the purpose of this Agreement and accepted by Anatel, resulting from international and national coordination processes.

5.3. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER may, exclusively in the performance of activities related to the Right to Exploit granted herein, use information regarding the individual use of the capacity in the space segment by the provider, while also being allowed to disclose aggregate data to third parties on the use of its space segment, provided that this does not result in the direct or indirect identification of a provider or in a breach of its commercial confidentiality.

5.3.1. The disclosure of individual information of the provider shall depend on its express and specific consent.

5.4. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER shall maintain available to Anatel, at any time, an updated record of all providers that contract the provision of space capacity, with, at least, the provider's name or corporate name and the address of its domicile or head office.

5.5. When requested by Anatel, the SATELLITE EXPLOITER shall provide data on the provision of space capacity to the providers.

5.6. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER shall maintain human resources, of Brazilian nationality, in sufficient quantity for the full operation of the Control Station of its satellite(s).

5.7. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER is entitled to freely exploit the satellite(s), purpose of this Agreement, and shall, as with any exploiter of an economic activity, comply with the principles and rules relating to free initiative, free competition, the social function of property, consumer protection, and the repression of the abuse of economic power.

5.8. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER shall have the right to petition Anatel whenever it feels to be a victim of unfair competition or abuse of economic power.

5.9. In situations of public calamity or catastrophe, the SATELLITE EXPLOITER undertakes to respond, with priority, to requests for the provision of space capacity made by public bodies.

5.10. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER shall not provide as collateral or dispose of the equipment necessary to fulfill the obligations set forth in this Agreement, without Anatel's consent.

5.11. In contracting services and in the acquisition of equipment and materials related to the provision of space capacity, purpose of this Agreement, the SATELLITE EXPLOITER undertakes to consider offers from independent suppliers, including national ones, and substantiate its decisions, with respect to the various offers presented, in compliance with the objective criteria of price, delivery conditions and technical specifications set forth in the relevant regulations.

5.11.1. In the contracting in question, the procedures of the Regulation on Procedures for Contracting Services and Acquisition of Equipment or Materials by Telecommunications Service Providers apply.

5.12. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER shall ensure that the installation of telecommunications stations, as well as their expansion, are in compliance with the regulatory provisions, in particular respecting the limitations regarding the distance from airports, airdromes, radiogoniometric stations and indigenous areas.

5.13. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER undertakes to continue the process of coordination, notification and registration of the orbital position and associated radio frequencies, in accordance with the procedures of the ITU's Radiocommunications Regulation.

5.14. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER also undertakes to:

- a) allow Anatel's inspection agents free access at any time to the works, equipment and facilities related to the Right to Exploit, as well as to its accounting records;
- b) keep the inventory and the record of assets used in the satellite exploitation up-to-date;
- c) receive and settle complaints and claims from the providers;
- d) participate, whenever convened by Anatel, in meetings relating to coordination processes of orbit and radio spectrum resources.

5.15. The SATELLITE EXPLOITER, in accordance with the provisions of Art. 135 of Law No. 9.472/97, undertakes to provide space capacity with priority to the following bodies:

- a) Essential Bodies of the Presidency of the Republic;
- b) Ministry of Defence;

9.2. The annulment of the Right to Exploit may be decreed in the event of loss of the essential conditions for the maintenance of the Right to Exploit by the SATELLITE EXPLOITER.

9.3. The expiry of this Right to Exploit may be decreed in the following cases:

- a) practice of a serious infringement;
- b) irregular transfer of the Right to Exploit;
- c) repeated non-compliance with the commitments made in this Agreement or with the provisions of the regulations;
- d) non-payment of the Operation Inspection Fees, as provided for by Law No. 9.472/97.

9.4. The annulment of the Right to Exploit shall result from the acknowledgement, by the administrative or judicial authority, of an irreparable irregularity of this Agreement.

9.5. The bilateral termination shall occur upon petition, duly justified, prepared by the SATELLITE EXPLOITER, indicating the period in which it intends to continue exercising the Right to Exploit before its definitive interruption, which may not be less than sixty (60) months.

9.5.1. The petition shall be analyzed by Anatel, which may impose conditions for its approval, with a view to preserving the continuity of telecommunications services using the orbital spectrum and position covered by this Agreement, in particular those involving the interests of the Government.

9.5.2. The bilateral termination does not eliminate the obligation of the SATELLITE EXPLOITER to be liable for the damages caused to the providers arising from the interruption of the provision of space capacity previously contracted.

9.5.3. The bilateral termination instrument shall provide for the conditions and terms under which such termination shall occur.

9.6. The extinction of the right to exploit shall be declared in its own administrative procedure, being the adversary trial and the full defense of the SATELLITE EXPLOITER guaranteed.

Extend, for the period of fifteen (15) years, as of 11/13/2018, the Right to Exploit Brazilian Satellites and to use the associated radio frequencies, in the Ku band, relating to the orbital position 70° W, granted by means of the Right to Exploit Brazilian Satellites Agreement PVSS/SPV No. 002/2003 - ANATEL to Star One S/A, CNPJ/MF No. 03.964.292/0001-70, and transferred to CLARO S.A., CNPJ/MF No. 40.432.544/0001-47, through Deed No. 3.200, of April 26, 2018.

Clause Two

The extension of the Right to Exploit Brazilian Satellites and use of the associated radio frequencies with respect to the orbital position 70° W is for a valuable consideration corresponding to the amount of eight million, three hundred and fifty-nine thousand, eight hundred and fifty-six reais and forty-six cents (R$ 8,359,856.46), in accordance with the provisions set forth in Articles 10 and 13 of the Regulation of Collection of Public Price for the Right to Exploit Telecommunications Services and for the Right to Exploit Satellites approved by Resolution No. 386, on November 3, 2004, of Anatel.

Clause Three

The other conditions and provisions set forth in the Right to Exploit Brazilian Satellites Agreement PVSS/SPV No. 002/2003-ANATEL remain unchanged.

In witness whereof, the parties execute this Amendment by electronic means for all intents and purposes of the Law.
