Re: Notification of the Pro Forma Merger of Tata Communications (US) Inc. with and into Tata Communications (America) Inc. and Pro Forma Transfer of Control of Tata Communications (Guam) L.L.C.

Dear Ms. Dortch:

Tata Communications (America) Inc. ("Tata America"), a Delaware corporation, by undersigned counsel and pursuant to 47 C.F.R. § 1.767(g)(7), notifies the Commission that on March 31, 2011, Tata Communications (US) Inc. ("Tata US"), a Delaware corporation, merged with and into Tata America, with Tata America surviving. As a result of this intracorporate pro forma merger, (1) two submarine cable landing licenses held by Tata US, SCL-LIC-20000308-00007 and SCL-LIC-20000717-00026, were transferred to Tata America, and (2) Tata US's interest in Tata Communications (Guam) L.L.C. ("Tata Guam"), which has a submarine cable landing license under SCL-LIC-20000717-00026, has been transferred to Tata America.

Tata America certifies that the merger was pro forma and that, together with all previous pro forma transactions, did not result in a change in the ultimate owners of any of the parties. Attached as Exhibit 1 is the certificate required by Section 1.767(g)(7). Following the intracorporate pro forma merger, Tata America remains a wholly-owned indirect subsidiary Tata Communications Limited ("TCL").

In addition, Tata Guam respectfully notifies the Commission of a name change. Tata Guam changed its name from VSNL International (Guam) Inc. to Tata Communications (Guam) L.L.C. as of April 30, 2008. Tata Guam's failure to previously notify the Commission of the name change was due to an inadvertent oversight.
