Re: Caribbean Crossings Ltd., Application for Transfer of Control of Submarine Cable Landing License (FCC File No. SCL-T/C-20090506-00009)
Trinity Communications Ltd., Application for Transfer of Control of Section 214 Authorization (FCC File No. ITC-T/C-20090506-00204)

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On behalf of Caribbean Crossings Ltd. ("CCL") and Trinity Communications Ltd. ("Trinity"), this letter responds to the recent inquiry of the staff of the Commission's International Bureau regarding the two above-captioned applications.

Specifically, the Bureau staff has asked whether, following the transaction described in the above-referenced applications, any single individual or entity will hold a 10% or greater equity or voting interest in Cable Bahamas Ltd. ("CBL"), the parent company of CCL and Trinity, and whether the cumulative voting and/or equity interests of the Government of The Bahamas following the transaction will be equal to or greater than 25%.

Following the transaction described in the above-captioned applications, a 5.0% or greater equity interest in CBL will be held by the National Insurance Board, an instrumentality of the Government of The Bahamas (22.14%) and by the Treasurer of the Government of The Bahamas (7.04%). No other individuals or entities will hold a 5% or greater equity interest.

Following the transaction, through the National Insurance Board and the Treasurer of the Government of The Bahamas, the Government of The Bahamas will have a cumulative 29.18% equity interest in CBL. Notwithstanding these equity interests, CBL is not currently, nor will it become, an affiliate of Bahamas Telecommunications Company ("BTC"), the dominant telecommunications carrier in The Bahamas which is currently owned by the Government of The Bahamas.¹ CBL and its affiliates are, in fact, direct competitors of BTC for the provisioning of Internet service in The Bahamas, and are barred under statute from providing voice telephony (including VoIP) service in The Bahamas.

Should the Commission have any further questions on this matter, please feel free to contact the undersigned counsel directly.

Sincerely,

Eric Fishman
