Re: Supplement to Joint Application of Cincinnati Bell Inc. and Hawaiian Telcom Holdco, Inc. for Transfer Control of Cable Landing Licenses, IB File Nos. SCL-T/C-20170811-00019, SCL-T/C-20170811-00020

Dear Ms. Dortch:

At the request of the International Bureau staff, Cincinnati Bell Inc. (“Cincinnati Bell”) and Hawaiian Telcom Holdco, Inc. (“Holdco”) (collectively, “Applicants”) hereby supplement the ownership information provided in the pending joint application for authority to transfer indirect control of Hawaiian Telcom, Inc. (“HTI”) and Hawaiian Telcom Services Company, Inc. (“HTSC”) to Cincinnati Bell (the “Joint Application”).

As indicated in the Application, GAMCO Investors, Inc. (NYSE: GBL) (“GAMCO”), a company incorporated under the laws of Delaware, currently holds approximately 12.37% of Cincinnati Bell stock.¹ GAMCO is a widely recognized provider of investment advisory services to open and closed-end funds, institutional and private wealth management investors principally in the United States. GAMCO’s 12.37% ownership in Cincinnati Bell is the aggregate ownership of multiple investment entities under the direct or indirect control of Mario J. Gabelli (“Gabelli”), a U.S. citizen and Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of GAMCO, whose business address is One Corporate Center, Rye New York 10580-1435. In addition to Mr. Gabelli, other members of GAMCO’s Board of Directors include: Raymond C. Avansino, Jr., Edwin L. Artzt, Eugene R. McGrath, Robert S. Prather, Jr., and Elisa M. Wilson. See <http://www.gabelli.com/corporate/bod.html>. Based on publicly available sources, it appears that at least a majority of the Board are likely U.S. citizens. Applicants are not aware of any person or entity currently holding a 10% or greater ownership interest in Cincinnati Bell through GAMCO. The Application also states that BlackRock, Inc. (NYSE: BLK) (“BlackRock”), an independent, publicly traded company incorporated in Delaware, owns approximately 13.8% of Cincinnati Bell stock.² BlackRock has no single majority shareholder and over two-thirds of its Board of Directors are independent directors. BlackRock holds its interest in Cincinnati Bell through BlackRock Fund Advisors, an investment management company owned by BlackRock. The Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of BlackRock is Laurence D. Fink. In addition to Mr. Fink, other members of BlackRock’s Board of Directors include: Mathis Cabiallavetta, William S. Demchak, Fabrizio Freda, James Grosfeld, Sir Deryck Maughan, Gordon M. Nixon, Ivan G. Seidenberg, Susan L. Wagner, Abdlatif Y. Al-Hamad, Pamela Daley, Jessica Einhorn, Murry S. Gerber, Robert S. Kapito, Cheryl D. Mills, Charles H. Robbins, and Marco Antonio Slim Domit. See <http://ir.blackrock.com/board-of-directors>. Based on publicly available sources, it appears that Mr. Fink is a U.S. citizen and at least a majority of the BlackRock Board are likely U.S. citizens. Applicants are not aware of any other person or entity currently holding a 10% or greater interest in Cincinnati Bell through BlackRock, Inc.

Applicants also note a minor correction to the Joint Application relating to the pending wireless applications associated with this transaction. The Joint Application inadvertently referenced ULS File No. 0007865711 in lieu of File No. 0007862711.³

Please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned should you have further questions.

Sincerely,
