

AMENDMENT

SpaceX Services, Inc. hereby amends its pending application for authority to operate a Ku-band gateway earth station by (1) increasing the number of antennas from one to four, and (2) changing polarization from right hand circular only to both right hand circular and left hand circular. All other aspects of the original application, including the public interest showing, remain unchanged.