

FCC 312 – SCHEDULE A

EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

The instructions for FCC 312 – Schedule A contemplate that this notification provides separate certifications by a licensee, assignor, and assignee. In this case, however, the licensee, assignor, and assignee are now all the same entity because the assignee is simply the licensee/assignor after emerging from bankruptcy pursuant to a reorganization plan. That is, the licensee/assignor was a debtor-in-possession (and the phrase “debtor-in-possession” was part of the licensee’s name during the past 16 or so months) prior to the bankruptcy reorganization plan becoming effective, and the assignee is the same entity now no longer subject to the bankruptcy proceeding. Accordingly, the certification is signed by a single authorized representative of the assignee on behalf of each of the licensee/assignor and assignee.
